By signing the entry form, I have read & agreed to all rules and regulations.

I agree not to hold The Brooklyn Fair, WCAS, The Show Committee, Show Staff or any volunteers responsible or reliable for any loss or injury to horses, riders, participants or spectators.

No REFUNDS after entry for any reason.

No switching of draw positions. HORSE MUST RUN IN POSITION DRAWN

A contestant will be disqualified for running out of turn or running the wrong horse. It's the contestant's responsibility to know their draw position.

Time shall begin and end as the horse crosses the starting line of the electric eye. An electric timer shall be used, with the time indicated by the electric timer to be the official time.

Pole Bending contestants may start either to the right or to the left of the first pole and then run the remainder of the pattern around six poles. Each pole is to be 21 feet apart, and the first pole is to be at least 21 feet from the starting line.

Contestants will receive a no time/ for breaking the pattern & five second penalty for each Pole or Barrel knocked

Only one horse may be in the arena during a run. The run begins when the horse crosses the time line.

Reruns shall be granted if the timer fails to work properly or if there are any other situations that show officials deems may have had a negative impact on a run. Any penalty incurred on the original run shall not be applied against the rerun;

Show officials and or committee have the right to disqualify any uncontrolled horse and/or a rider that may present a danger to themselves or other contestants, Riders may also be disqualified for excessive use of a whip, rope, crop, bat or reins on their horse.

Disrespectful behavior will not be tolerated and can lead to instant disqualification or ban from the show.

If a tie occurs placing will be worked off if all tied exhibitors agree to participate in a run-off, if not, show committee will decide how to break the tie.
